Statutory Redundancy Pay is calculated on the basis of an employee's age and length of service at the termination date (which must be two years or more) and their weekly pay. The payment is free of tax and national insurance deductions. To calculate entitlement: 1. Find on the grid the multiplier based on the employee's length of service and age; 2. Multiply this by £525 (Maximum Statutory Weekly Pay, from 6 April 2019) or the employee's gross weekly pay if lower. For example an employee aged 47 with two years service earning £25,000 is entitled to £1,575 i.e. 3 x £525.
